RICHEMONT

AD HOC ANNOUNCEMENT PURSUANT TO ART. 53 LR 12 NOVEMBER 2021

RICHEMONT AND FARFETCH IN ADVANCED TALKS TO FURTHER THEIR PARTNERSHIP

Richemont is pleased to announce that further progress has been made towards creating a neutral, industry-wide platform, built on the latest omnichannel retail technologies, to support the digitisation of the luxury industry.

In this context, Richemont is in advanced discussions with Farfetch with a view to enhancing the partnership it established last year. The scope of the current discussions includes:

- (i) Farfetch investing directly in YOOX NET-A-PORTER as a minority shareholder, with other investors to be invited to participate alongside;
- (ii) YOOX NET-A-PORTER leveraging Farfetch Platform Solutions to support its ongoing transition to a hybrid 1P/3P business model;
- (iii)Richemont Maisons leveraging Farfetch technology to accelerate their Luxury New Retail developments; and
- (iv) Richemont Maisons joining the Farfetch marketplace.

Other industry players and investors have already indicated their interest in investing in YOOX NET-A-PORTER alongside Richemont and Farfetch. The ultimate objective is for YOOX NET-A-PORTER to be a neutral platform, with no controlling shareholders.

Richemont continues to work with Farfetch towards definitive agreements and will provide an update in due course, if and when appropriate. There can be no certainty that the discussions will lead to definitive agreements, nor as to the timing or terms of any transaction. Any transaction would be subject to the receipt of clearances from relevant anti-trust authorities.
